

First Padua-Leipzig Arqus Workshop

This workshop is aimed at presenting and discussing current research carried out in the context of the two research groups on classical German philosophy in Leipzig and Padua. A selected group of PhD students, Postdocs and Professors from both universities will present working papers on a broad range of topics, ranging from perceptual and aesthetic normativity, to the idea of thinking and reason, including also debates on nature and the natural. The workshop is supported by the research network ARQUS.

Organized by
Luca Corti (Padua) and Andrea Kern (Leipzig)

Norms, Thought and Nature: Topics in Classical German Philosophy

July 11-13 2022

UNIVERSITÄT
LEIPZIG

FAGI
FORSCHUNGSKOLLEG
ANALYTIC GERMAN IDEALISM

Venue: Villa Tillmanns, Seminar room
(Wächterstraße 30, 04107 Leipzig)

MONDAY, July 11th

10.00 – 10.30

Luca Corti (Padua) and Andrea Kern (Leipzig)
Welcome & Introduction

10.30 – 13.00

Claudia Cavaliere (Padua):
*The Lingua Franca of Philosophy:
Wilfrid Sellars reads Kant*

Annapaola Varaschin (Padua):
Regulative Reason in Kant's First Critique

Bianca Ancillotti (Leipzig):
On using the word "God" as a proper name

14.00 – 16.00

Informal meetings

TUESDAY, July 12th

10.00 – 13.15

Joris Spigt (Leipzig):
Hegel on Contradiction

Laura de Qual (Padua):
The Denaturalization of Nature. Hegel, Contemporary Art, and Environmental Aesthetics

Giulia Bernard (Padua): *Die diskursive Vollzugsform
von Hegels Berliner System*

14.00 – 16.00

Informal meetings

WEDNESDY, July 13th

9.00 – 10.00

Luca Corti (Padua): *From The Human Point of View:
Classical German Anthropologies*

Andrea Kern (Leipzig): The Life of an "I"

Luca Illiterati (Padua): *Towards a Non-naturalistic
Naturalism*

Sebastian Rödl (Leipzig): Good and Evil

10.15 – 12.00

Information about Exchange Programs and Forms of Cooperation

Conception and Planning of Future Projects

14.00 – 16.00

Informal meetings